

Scripture Reading

Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness,
how can it be made salty again?
It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile;
it is thrown out.

Women: We are the Salt of the Earth.

Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity.
Let your conversation be always full of grace,
seasoned with salt, so that you may know
how to answer everyone.

Children: We are the Salt of the Earth.

Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness,
how can you make it salty again?
Have salt in yourselves,
and be at peace with each other.

Men: We are the Salt of the Earth.

Season all your grain offerings with salt.
Do not leave the salt of the covenant
of your God out of your grain offerings;
add salt to all your offerings...
Therefore, I urge you in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—
This is your spiritual act of worship.

ALL: We are the Salt of the Earth.

(Based on Matthew 5:13; Mark 9:50; Luke 14:34; Col. 4:5,6; Lev. 2:13; Rom. 12:1)

About Our Guests...

We warmly welcome each of our speakers, performers, out of town members and visitors at Church today.

Pastor Mitchell Tyner, who has for many years served in the Office of General Counsel at the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, is both a minister and an attorney. He has specialized in religious liberty issues, both in the United States and abroad, and has mediated in many workplace conflicts that have arisen when members have refused to work on Sabbath. A native of Texas, Mitchell Tyner will be our guest speaker this morning.

Esteban Ramirez: This Los Angeles based musician has released three national albums, most recently one entitled "Fly with Me." A native of El Paso, Texas, Esteban began piano lessons at 10, later composing vocal and instrumental songs. "My spirit leads me to music that is romantic, lyrical and strongly emotional," says the artist. He can be contacted at www.descanso-music.com.

Joshua Tuburan: Beginning formal piano lessons at age five, Joshua made his performing debut at the age of eight at Loma Linda University Church. After developing his songwriting and arranging skills, he released his first album in 1996. In 2004 Joshua won first place in the piano category of the Gospel Music Association awards. Further information about the artist may be found at www.joshuatuburan.com.

Ritch Barron, who is performing today with his college friend Dave Ferguson, is the son of well-known singing evangelist Dick Barron.

Opening Hymn

1. Praise with joy the world's Creator, God of justice, love, and peace, Source and end of human knowledge, grace bestowing without cease. Celebrate the Maker's glory, power to rescue and release.
2. Praise to Christ who feeds the hungry, frees the captive, finds the lost, Heals the sick, upsets religion, fearless both of fate and cost. Celebrate Christ's constant presence— Friend and Stranger, Guest and Host.
3. Praise the Spirit sent among us, liberating truth from pride, Forging bonds where race or gender, age or nation dare divide. Celebrate the Spirit's treasure—foolishness none dare deride.
4. Praise the Maker, Christ, and Spirit, one God in Community, Calling Christians to embody oneness and diversity. Thus the world shall yet believe when shown Christ's vibrant unity.
