Scripture Reading

Matthew 2:1-6

After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem and asked, “Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews?
We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him.”

When King Herod heard this he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. When he had called together all the people’s chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Christ was to be born.

“In Bethlehem in Judea,” they replied, “for this is what the prophet has written: ‘But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of my people Israel.’”

You will be invited to come forward as part of the Day of Remembrance service to light a candle in honor of someone close to your heart.

“But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.” –I Corinthians 13:8, 13

Pastoral Comments....

The other evening, Sue and I were visited by a couple. We went to dinner, we prayed together and they lifted our spirits. What a great resource this community of faith is! I encourage you, if you are facing bad news for yourself or a loved one, do not back away or close up. Do not lose faith in God or His healing power. In fact, Scripture tells us that we can be FAITH for one another. Sue and I draw on that power daily. Thank you for your faith, your prayer and your love. God is Good, and we continue to pray for this season of restoration and healing.
