O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,

O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

Verse 4

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning,

The City Church FRIENDS OF MUSIC sponsor many special touches in our music program. Brass for the Christmas Concert, Dr. Melvin West's "Hymn Festival" and other guest musicians are possible because of the Friends' special support. Please consider being a part of the Friends of Music with a specially marked gift this Christmas season.

It is with great appreciation we thank the Music Committee, all the volunteers, the Deacons, servers, and everyone who helped plan and prepare this special evening of music and fellowship.

RESPONSIVE READING

Leader: The prophet Isaiah proclaimed that God's chosen one, the Messiah, would bring light into the darkness of a troubled world and be known as the Prince of Peace. In the Hebrew language of the Old Testament, the peace of God is referred to as shalom. Shalom is so rich in its meaning that no single English word can translate it. It is a state in which nothing is lacking because everything exists in perfect unity with God.

People: We long for peace in our troubled world.

Leader: As Christians we recognize Jesus Christ as God's promised Messiah. Jesus spoke these words in order to comfort us, "Peace I leave with you; my own peace I now give you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not allow yourselves to live in fear. My peace is different than the peace the world offers. Rely on me, and I will give you peace."

People: Come, Lord Jesus, fill our hearts with your perfect peace.

Leader: Let us pray

People: O God of peace, we ask You to send Your light into our hearts. Work in our lives to help us have no fear. Let nothing be lacking in our lives so that we may live in perfect relationship with each other and with You through Your Son, the Prince of Peace.
