Scripture Reading

John 3:16, 17; 10:9-11

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved. He will come in and go out, and find pasture.

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

I am the good shepherd.
The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

Closing Hymn No. 255 (vv. 1,3,4), "I Cannot Tell Why"

1. I cannot tell why He whom angels worship
Should set His love upon the souls of men
Or why as Shepherd He should seek the wanderers,
To bring them back, they know not how nor when.
But this I know that He was born of Mary
When Bethlehem's manger was His only home,
And that He lived at Nazareth and labored;
And so the Savior, Savior of the world has come.

3. I cannot tell how He will win the nations,
How He will claim His earthly heritage,
How satisfy the needs and aspirations
Of east and west, of sinner and of sage.
But this I know all flesh shall see His glory,
And He shall reap the harvest He has sown,
And some glad day His sun will shine in splendor
When He the Savior, Savior of the world is known.

4. I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship,
When at His bidding every storm is stilled,
Or who can say how great the jubilation
When all our hearts with love for Him are filled.
But this I know the skies shall sound His praises,
Ten thousand, thousand human voices sing,
And earth to heaven, and heaven to earth will answer,
At last the Savior, Savior of the world, is King!

Stirling Trent, guest violinist today at City Church!

A native of Colleyville, Texas, violinist Stirling Trent has performed as concertmaster for three orchestras in his home state since 2004: the Garland Symphony Orchestra, Symphony Arlington, and the Las Colinas Symphony Orchestra. He regularly appears as soloist with regional orchestras, and has an active interest in chamber music. Currently, he is working towards his Doctorate of Musical Arts at the Thornton School of Music at the University of Southern California, where his principal teacher is Midori Goto.

Notable concert appearances by Stirling Trent include Live from Lincoln Center with Itzhak Perlman, as well as a series at Carnegie Hall in 2003 in which he was concertmaster for the New York String Orchestra under Jaime Laredo. Mr. Trent has won numerous awards, including Grand Prizes from the Texas Association of Symphony Orchestras' Juanita Miller Competition, the Dallas Symphonic Festival, and the Hubbard Chamber Music Festival. In 2009, Stirling will participate in the 5th Seoul International Music Competition, in Seoul, South Korea.

Mr. Trent is a graduate of The Juilliard School, where he was a student of Itzhak Perlman. In addition to his Bachelor's degree from Juilliard, he studied for many years with Jan Mark Sloman, the Associate Principal Concertmaster of the Dallas Symphony. Having been inspired by great teachers himself, Stirling enjoys working with a small private studio of his own students, in Los Angeles.

We warmly welcome Sterling Trent today!
