Glendale City Seventh-day Adventist Church

November 13, 2010

“Revealing Christ, affirming all.”

Scripture Reflection

John 3:16, 17

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

Anthem: "Spirit, Now Live In Me"

O holy Dove of God descending,
You are the love that knows no ending,
All of our shattered dreams You're mending:
Spirit, now live in me.

O holy Wind of God now blowing,
You are the love that knows no ending,
You are the life that starts us growing:
Spirit, now live in me.

O holy Rain of God now falling,
You make the Word of God enthralling,
You are that inner voice now calling:
Spirit, now live in me.

O holy Flame of God now burning,
You are the power of Christ returning,
You are the answer to our yearning:
Spirit, now live in me.

Today's Guest Speaker: Connie Vandeman Jeffery

Connie Vandeman Jeffery hosts Weekend Voice with Pastor Fred Kinsey. She is the youngest child of George and Nellie Vandeman and was born the same year her father founded the It Is Written telecast. Connie also hosts the Keeping the Faith television program along with Gale Murphy, Andrea Judd, and medical expert Dr. Diana Broomfield. The program focuses on issues of particular interest to women.

Connie has been in front of television cameras since the age of five, when her father carried her with her teddy bear across the It Is Written set in New York. She began studying piano in the second grade, received a guitar for Christmas when she was 13, recorded her first album (God Is Beautiful) for Chapel Music during her junior year of high school, began singing on her father's telecast the following year, and received an Angel Award in 1990 for her album Jesus Never Fails. She recorded the album It's Beginning to Rain in 1993 and the popular Songs My Father Loved in 2001 (the latter is a tribute to her father).

Connie's numerous articles have appeared in Insight, The Adventist Review, VOP News, and the It Is Written magazine, "Channels".

In addition, she has compiled her father's best stories and sermon illustrations into a book called, "Helpings for the Heart."

Along with her role at Voice of Prophecy, Connie is associate manager of the Adventist Media Center in Simi Valley, California. Prior to joining the Media Center staff, she was a property manager for a Beverly Hills development corporation for 12 years. She has also worked in advertising and promotion at the CBS network in Hollywood.

Connie is married to Ron Jeffery and they have one son.

Glendale City Health Education: Holiday Eating, Part 2

The holiday table: dinner plates, salad plates, bread plates, soup bowls, and dessert plates. That's a lot of surface area to be covered with caloric-dense foods, not to mention that the average dinner plate is 11-12" in diameter compared to 7-9" a few decades ago. Studies have shown that people feel satisfied following a smaller meal served on a smaller plate than when that same meal is served on a larger plate. The Small Plate Diet Movement suggests that reducing the plate size from 12" to 10" would result in 22% fewer calories. Since we usually "fill our plates" and eat what we put on our plates, cut calories and prevent weight gain this holiday season by downsizing to smaller plates.

• Today there will be a free blood pressure screening following potluck.

• December 6 - Screening of Forks Over Knives. This new documentary (to be in theaters early 2011) features the latest on nutrition, lifestyle research, and personal stories of people who changed their lifestyles and subsequent health outcomes. Free admission. 6:30 p.m. reception followed by 7 p.m. screening. Location: Lower level main auditorium, Glendale Adventist Medical Center. Info/reservations: 818-409-8100.
