About Today's Performer

Ty Woodward is currently staff organist at Disney's El Capitan Theatre in Hollywood and interim choir director and organist at Hollywood United Methodist Church. As a pipe organ consultant, he has worked with numerous churches in the design and installation of their new pipe organs, and is the area representative for the Schantz Organ Company of Orrville, Ohio. Ty holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Organ Performance and a Master's degree in Choral Conducting from the University of Southern California. He is a former Dean of the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and has served on the Commission of Liturgy and Music for the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles.

He has played both classical and theatre organ concerts, with performances ranging from Westminster Abbey, London; Trinity Church, New York; The National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D.C.; St. James Cathedral, Toronto; and the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles; to Shea's Theatre, Buffalo; the Byrd Theatre, Richmond; the Paramount Theatre, Cedar Rapids; the Alabama Theatre, Birmingham; and the outdoor pipe organ in Balboa Park, San Diego where his July 2010 concert was attended by 2,300 people. He has played several major works with orchestra including the Symphonie Concertante of Joseph Jongen and Saint-Saëns Symphony No. 3.

His recording credits include a solo classical recording on the Aeolian-Skinner organ at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. and a theatre organ recording on the Wurlitzer organ at the Auditorium Theatre in Rochester, N.Y. along with accompaniments for numerous choral recordings.

He has conducted many works from the choral/orchestral repertoire, including Mendelssohn's Elijah, Haydn's Creation, Handel's Messiah and the requiems of Brahms, Mozart, and Fauré.
