Responsive Reading

Luke 4:1-13

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the desert, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of them he was hungry.

The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread.”

Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Man does not live on bread alone.’”

The devil led him up to a high place and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And he said to him, “I will give you all their authority and splendor, for it has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want to. So if you worship me, it will all be yours.”

Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.’”

The devil led him to Jerusalem and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. “If you are the Son of God,” he said, “throw yourself down from here.

For it is written:

“He will command his angels concerning you to guard you carefully; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.”

Jesus answered, “It says: ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

When the devil had finished all this tempting, he left him until an opportune time.

1st Anthem: “Ave Verum Corpus”

*Ave verum corpus, natum de Maria Virgine,
Vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine.
Cujus latus perforatum unda fluxit aqua et sanguine:
Esto nobis praegustatum in mortis examine.*

English translation: Jesu, Word of God Incarnate, of the Virgin Mary born;
On the cross Thy sacred body, for us with nails was torn.
Cleanse us by the blood and the water streaming from Thy pierced side.
Feed us with Thy body broken, now and in death's agony.)

2nd Anthem: “When Jesus walked in the wilderness”

When Jesus walked the wilderness he fasted and he prayed.
Alone, he battled Pride and Greed as false promises were made.
The Tempter's promises were scorned; no bread transformed from stone.
“One does not live by bread alone.”
Then challenged was the Son of God:
“O there is naught to fear!
Go, cast yourself from pinnacles; God's angels hover near.”
The Tempter's promises were scorned, the challenge laid to rest:
“Do not put the Lord God to the test.”
When Jesus walked the wilderness for forty days and nights, rebuked were snares in shadows there, authority and might.
The Tempter's promises were scorned for God was placed above all Satan's wiles: “One God to serve and love.”
When Jesus walked the wilderness rejecting Pride and Greed, he lifted up the bitter cup that the will of God decreed.
