Responsive Reading

Genesis 6-9 (Contemporary English Version, adapted)

The Lord saw how bad the people on earth were and that everything they thought and planned was evil.

“I’ll destroy every living creature on earth! I’ll wipe out people, animals, birds, and reptiles.”

But the Lord was pleased with Noah, he was the only person who lived right and obeyed God. He had three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. So he told Noah:

“Get some good lumber and build a boat. I’m going to send a flood that will destroy everything that breathes! But I solemnly promise that you, your wife, your sons, and your daughters-in-law will be kept safe in the boat. And bring into the boat with you a male and a female of every kind of animal and bird, as well as a male and a female of every reptile. I don’t want them to be destroyed. Store up enough food both for yourself and for them.”

Noah did everything the Lord told him to do. And when they were all in the boat, God closed the door. For forty days the rain poured down without stopping. After forty days, the water started going down and the earth was completely dry. God said to Noah, “I am going to make a solemn promise: I promise every living creature that the earth and those living on it will never again be destroyed by a flood. The rainbow will be the sign of that solemn promise.”

ADULT SABBATH SCHOOL BIBLE STUDY OPTIONS (9:30-10:30 A.M.):

- CHAPEL — SABBATH SCHOOL QUARTERLY (TRADITIONAL): Current study theme: “Major Lessons from Minor Prophets” by Zdravko Stefanovic. Subtitled “Seek the Lord and Live,” these lessons examine how God worked through the last prophets of the Old Testament to reveal God’s grace for fallen humanity.
- GRACE CENTER (FELLOWSHIP HALL, north end) — New book study: “The Rise and Fall of the Bible: The Unexpected History of an Accidental Book” by Timothy Beal. Early Christianity thrived for centuries without any Bible (or even agreement on which books to include in scripture). The author reveals how the idea of the Bible as an inerrant rulebook is a relatively modern concept, dating from the 19th century. Note: today this class will combine with the traditional Sabbath School Quarterly class.
- THE LIVING PROJECT (FELLOWSHIP HALL, south end) — Social and interactive sharing of personal, cultural, religious, scientific, and scriptural stories. As we connect with our stories we seek to discover our common story in God.

*All are welcome — whoever you are, whatever your journey or background.
 God excludes no one, and neither do we.*

Wanted: Names of Graduates! If you have or know of a graduate, from any grade, Class of 2013, please contact the Church Office. We want to honor them in a special service (to be announced).

Thanks to your prayers and the work of his medical team, Daniel Chaney is home with the prospect of improving health and strong hopes for remission as he continues his treatment. He is extremely grateful for all the love, support, and prayers he has received from the City Church family.

We regret to announce the passing of our member Anna Kalangi. She passed away last weekend in her home. There will be a memorial service on June 15, 2:00 p.m., with the potluck preceding the service. For those who would like to send cards to the family, you may do so to the following address: 2465 Sherwood Lane, San Bernardino, CA 92408.

If you know of another member being admitted, get their permission and let us know as well. Hospitals will not contact us due to their patient privacy guidelines. Assistive Listening Devices are now available for you to use during worship service. Contact a greeter in the narthex, or an audio technician in the balcony for one.

New Sermon series continues next week! At the heart of the Seventh-day Adventist faith is the practice of keeping Sabbath. Pastor Todd is going to devote his summer sermons to wondering if Sabbath is actually a gateway to an entirely different way of viewing and engaging life.

Summer Book Clubs begin this week! Read Christianity for the Rest of Us, the companion book to Pastor Todd’s summer sermon series and enjoy in-depth discussion either online or on-campus. Online posts go up on Pastor Todd’s blog each Wednesday and on-campus discussions happen Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. in the Multipurpose Room. Register for either group here: <http://reconcilerestore.wordpress.com/2013/06/03/book-clubs-begin-this-week-space-still-available>.
