AT THE TABLE

Seventh-day Adventists practice open Communion, so we invite all members and guests to participate.

Breaking the Bread

Cherise Gardner

We remember Jesus who took bread in his hands, broke it, gave it to his friends, and said, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. Take, eat, this is my body, which is for you. Do this to remember me.”

Offering the Cup

Hugh Gardner

We remember Jesus who took the wine cup in his hands and gave thanks for it. He gave it to them and said, “This is the new covenant sealed by my blood. When you drink from it, do this in memory of me. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day.”

Congregational Response

God of the past and the present,
with this bread and wine we remember your Son.
We thank you for his life, his death, and resurrection.
We look for his coming in glory
and in him we give ourselves to you.

Prayer

Cherise Gardner

God of love, send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that as we receive this bread and wine we shall by faith receive the body and blood of Christ.

Congregational Response

Called to follow him, help us to reconcile and unite.
Called to serve, give us hope in our calling.

Deacons will distribute the bread and wine.

Receiving the Bread

Hugh Gardner

The Bread we break is a sharing in the body of Christ.

Receiving the Cup

Cherise Gardner

The Cup we take is a sharing in the blood of Christ.

Congregation Response

We who are many are one body, for we all share the one bread.

Partaking of the Bread

Hugh Gardner

Here are bread and wine; the gifts of God for the people of God.

Partaking of the Cup

Cherise Gardner

May we who share these gifts, be found in Christ and Christ in us.
Take, eat and drink.

Congregational Prayer Response

May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup bring life to others.
We whom the Spirit enlightens give light to the world.
