Responsive Reading

Acts 4:5-13

The next day the rulers, the elders and the teachers of the law met in Jerusalem. Annas the high priest was there, and so were Caiaphas, John, Alexander and others of the high priest's family. They had Peter and John brought before them and began to question them: "By what power or what name did you do this?"

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: "Rulers and elders of the people! If we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a man who was lame and are being asked how he was healed, then know this, you and all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you healed. Jesus is "the stone you builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone." Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved."

When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.

Closing Hymn: "Jesus, We Know Your Love in This"

TUNE: St. Catherine

—Carolyn Winfrey Gillette

(1) Jesus, we know your love in this:
You gave your life to save us all.
You died so we would all be blessed,
And in this gift, we hear your call:
What are you willing, Church, to do?
How will you love as I've loved you?

(2) We are weighed down by what we own,
While those who lack the world's goods die;
Even in places near to home,
Poor, hungry people daily cry:
What are you willing, Church, to do?
How does God's love abide in you?

(3) Teach us, O Lord, your way to live;
Serving your world means sacrifice.
Loving means we will freely give —
Sharing our goods, our skills, our lives.
Make us a church that's bold and new —
Dying to self, to live for you.

Current Sermon Series

We continue today with our current sermon series, "Jesus Lives On: The Story of the Early Church". Today we look at how the power of Jesus' resurrection lived on in the lives of his followers, and what this life-altering event should mean to us today.
