Sing, ye heavens, and earth reply, Alleluia!  Live again our glorious King, Alleluia! Where, O death, is now thy sing? Alleluia! Once He died, our souls to save, Alleluia! Where's thy victory, boasting grave? Alleluia!  Love's redeeming work is done, Alleluia! Fought the fight, the battle won, Alleluia! Death in vain forbids Him rise, Alleluia! Christ hath opened Paradise, Alleluia!  Soar we then where Christ has led, Alleluia! Following our exalted Head, Alleluia! Made like Him, like Him we rise, Alleluia! Scripture	Now listen I want you to know what happens to a Child of God when He or She dies. So that when it happens, you will not be as full of sorrow as those who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus dies and then came back to life again we can also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring with him all those of His children who have died. And I can tell you this directly from the Lord that we who are still living when the Lord returns will not rise to meet Him ahead of those who are in their graves. For the Lord Himself will come down from heaven with a mighty shout and with the stirring cry of the archangel and the great trumpet call of God and those who are dead will be the first to rise and meet the Lord. --Living Bible, adapted	Mitchell Henson
Vocal Duet	"I've Just Seen Jesus" Nell Walker & Jesse Martin, vocal duet Tony Coleman, pianist	Gaither/Daniels
Closing Hymn	"Crown Him With Many Crowns"  Crown Him with many crowns, The Lamb upon His throne; Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns All music but its own! Awake, my soul, and sing Of Him who died for thee; And hail Him as thy matchless King Through all eternity.  Crown Him the Lord of love! Behold His hands and side, Those wounds, yet visible above, In beauty glorified; No angel in the sky, Can fully bear that sight, But downward bends his wondering eye At mysteries so great.  Crown Him the Lord of peace! Whose hand a scepter sways From pole to pole, that wars may cease, And all be prayer and praise; His reign shall know no end, And round His pierced feet, Fair flowers of Paradise extend, Their fragrance ever sweet.  Crown Him the Lord of years, The Potentate of time, Creator of the rolling spheres, Ineffably sublime! All hail! Redeemer, hail! For Thou hast died for me; Thy praise shall never, never fail Throughout eternity.	No. 223
