Prelude	“Gloria” Organ & Brass	Daniel Pinkham
Opening Hymn	“Christ the Lord Is Risen Today”	No. 166
Call to Worship	On Easter morning they saw the stone rolled back, the empty tomb. Trembling, they doubted, feared, and wondered. We doubt. We fear. We wonder. Trembling, they approached the tomb, place of death meeting life, of endings and new beginnings. We approach the tomb. We doubt. We fear. We wonder. Passing through betrayal and sorrow, through death and defeat, Trembling, they came to Easter morning. This Easter morning, we see life bursting through death. Trembling, we meet the risen Christ.	Smuts van Rooyen

Glendale City Seventh-day Adventist Church

Easter Sabbath

April 3, 2010

Scripture Reading

1 Corinthians 15:3-8, 12, 16-20, 58, TNIV

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance:
that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures,
that he was buried,
that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,
and that he appeared to [Peter], and then to the Twelve.

After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep.

Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, and last of all he appeared to me also.

But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?
For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile;
you are still in your sins.

Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost.
If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all others.

But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead,
the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm.
Let nothing move you.

Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Glendale City Health Education Program Says...

Does working at the computer for extended periods cause you: sore, tired, burning, or itching eyes; watery or dry eyes; blurred or occasional double vision; headache; sore neck; increased sensitivity to light; and/or difficulty shifting focus from near to far or visa versa? Eyestrain is a common complaint and usually relieved by the following simple techniques:

1. Reduce excessive bright light from overhead lighting and/or windows.
2. If near a window, place computer monitor perpendicular to window.
3. Place computer screen at or slightly below eye level. Bifocal wearers may need to lower the screen more.
4. Position screen to clearly see characters: farther away is better (up to 35 inches). Periodically, remove dust from computer screen.
5. Adjust computer brightness to be similar to your work environment.
6. Use high contrast between screen background and on-screen characters.
7. Position task lighting away from the monitor for copy/deskwork.
8. Take hourly eye rest mini-breaks of 1-2 minute to stretch and do eye exercises by focusing eyes 20-30 feet away and move eyes in all directions.
9. Blink often to moisten eyes.
10. See your doctor if symptoms continue after implementing these tips.

Beginning in our middle years, balance may begin to decline and continue into our older years. On April 17, 2010 Greg Cox, physical therapist, author, and Clinical Director of the Balance Disorders Institute, will present "Finding Balance." Know someone who has balance concerns, or cares for someone with balance concerns? Invite and/or bring them when you attend this important and informative free one-hour class provided at 9:30 a.m. in the Chapel during Sabbath School class time.

Then: "Balance Challenge" with Greg Cox is back! Beginning Tuesday, April 20, 2010, at 6:30 p.m., this six-week exercise class will be offered to adults aged 55 and older of all fitness and skill levels. Class meets: April 20 and 27, and May 4, 11, 18, and 25, 2010. The class is designed to restore balance, reduce the risk of falling, increase bone density, and improve walking skills. "Balance Challenge" utilizes Tai Chi, yoga, strength, balance, and cardio activities to safely restore balance skills. The total cost for the 6-week program is only $6. RSVP required as only 18 spaces remain available. Please wear comfortable clothes and good athletic shoes—no sandals! For more information contact Kathy McFarland at 626-398-1445 or actionsforwellness@sbcglobal.net.

Easter Lilies. You are welcome to take an Easter lily to shut-ins or to enjoy with your family after the Easter service next week. Suggested donation is $5.

The Second Saturday Series will feature organist, Kimo Smith next Sabbath, April 10 at 4 p.m. Kimo Smith is an organist and collaborative pianist who began music studies at the age of four. He graduated from Hawaiian Mission Academy and then came to the continental U.S. for further musical study, receiving his Bachelor and Master degrees, magna cum laude, in organ performance from USC. He completed his Doctoral degree at UCLA. He is currently an Associate Professor of Music at La Sierra University and performs locally and abroad with orchestral ensembles such as the Los Angeles Master Chorale. He is constantly involved with church music and Glendale City Adventist Church is proud to host his performance.

City Church Baptism. The date for the next City Church baptism is April 24. If you are interested in being part of this service, please contact one of the pastoral staff.

Men's Ministry Convocation, April 9-11, Camp Cedar Falls. Adventist Men's Ministry will host a weekend of fellowship and vision for service. For further information and cost contact Charles Dolcey at 323-353-8234 or Frank Fulgham at 805-522-2992.

Mark your calendars! The Loma Linda Academy Consort, an 18-member string orchestra, will be performing in the City Church sanctuary on April 23 at 7:30 p.m., in honor of Gladys Golay's 100th birthday celebration. All are welcome to this performance.

Adventist Field School, Pittsburgh, PA, May 2-8, 2010. Peter Roennfeldt and Monte Sahlin will be the presenters for Adventist Fresh Expressions, a first-time field school for clergy and laity who want to start or are involved in innovative church-plants and community-based ministries designed to reach unchurched people in contemporary culture. Contact the church office for further details.

In planning church events or meeting appointments, please note that the room which has for many years been known as the Youth Center is now called the Multipurpose Room. The youth will be getting their own room, which will be called the Youth Room.
